Name of the register

Register of volunteer demonstration observers of Amnesty International Finnish Section

Registered

This register stores personal data of Amnesty International's volunteer demonstration observers.

Retention period of personal data

The data is added to the register when a person interested in becoming a volunteer observer sends in their application. The data will be stored until this person informs Amnesty International Finnish Section that they will no longer participate in the observation activities.

Purpose of the register

The purpose of the register is to coordinate the demonstration observation activities of Amnesty International Finnish Section and to keep in touch with volunteer observers.

Personal data stored in the register

The register contains the following personal data: name, email address, telephone number, place of residence, information on participation in the observations

Protection and processing of the register

The register is only used by people whose work tasks require the use of it for purposes described in this policy. The rights to use the register are granted and supervised by the person in charge of the register.

Disclosure to third parties or outside the EU and EEA countries

Personal data in this register is not disclosed to third parties and it is not transferred outside the EU and EEA countries.

Rights of the data subject

The data subject has the following rights, requests for which must be made to the person in charge for the register.

- Right of inspection

Every person in the register has the right to check their data stored in the register at any time and demand the correction of any incorrect information or the completion of incomplete information. If a person wants to check the data stored about him or her or demand rectification of it, the request must be sent to the controller of the register.

- Right to object

The data subject may object to the processing of personal data if they feel that the personal data has been processed unlawfully.

- Right to a direct marketing ban

The data subject has the right to prohibit the use of the data for direct marketing.

- Right to erasure

The data subject has the right to request the erasure of the data if the processing of the data is not necessary. We will process the deletion request, after which we will either delete the data or provide a justified reason why the data cannot be deleted. It should be noted that the controller may have a statutory or other right not to delete the requested information.

- Right to withdraw consent

If the processing of personal data concerning the data subject is based solely on consent, and e.g. customer relationship or membership, the data subject can withdraw their consent. Justice limits

If the processing of personal data concerning the data subject is based solely on consent, and not, for example, on customer status or membership, the data subject may withdraw consent.

- Right to restriction

The data subject has the right to demand that we restrict the processing of the disputed data until the matter is resolved.

- Right to appeal

The data subject has the right to lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Ombudsman if they feel that we are in breach of the applicable data protection legislation when processing personal data. Contact details of the Data Protection Ombudsman: <https://tietosuoja.fi/en/contact-information>
